MILITARY & NAVAL MOVEMENTS

TROOPSHIP HERE

1ST EAST YORKSHIRE REGT. GOING TO INDIA

JOB FOR H.M.S. "SERAPIS"

The week-end has been a busy one as regards movements of the Royal Navy and the Army. H.M.'s troopship "Dorsetshire" arrived in port this morning, on return from North China. She took the 2nd Batt. Royal Scots to Tientsin and now has on board the 1st Batt. East Yorkshire Regiment, with families, from Chinwangtao, bound for India on transfer. There are also on board reliefs from the garrisons at Tientsin and Shanghai and a number of details, bound for home, are joining here. The "Dorsetshire" is to come out once more during the troping season.

"Hermes" Goes Out

H.M.S. "Serapis" of the 8th Destroyer Flotilla, men of which were called back on Saturday night, has, it is now learned, gone to the assistance of the Chinese s.s. "Hsin Chi" which is aground on Tai Island.

H.M.S. "Hermes" (the aircraft carrier) and H.M.S. "Seraph" (also of the 8th Destroyer Flotilla) have gone out on exercises. H.M.S. "Foxglove" (a sloop) returns to harbour to-day on completion of exercises.

H.M.S. "Sapoy" (another destroyer) arrived here from Shanghai yesterday.

H.M.S. "Suffolk" (one of the new cruisers) arrived at Nagasaki, in Japan, yesterday, from Wei-hai-wei. On completion of her cruise in Japanese waters, she will return to Shanghai and not accompany H.M.S. "Kent" (flagship of the commander-in-chief) and H.M.S. "Berwick" to Hong Kong, as previously arranged. H.M.S. "Berwick" has arrived at Fusan.

PRESIDENT-ELECT

BRAZIL INTERESTED IN MR. HOOVER'S TOUR

COFFEE QUESTION

Rio de Janeiro, Yesterday. Much interest has been aroused by the announcement of Mr. Hoover's projected tour, from which the important "Jornal do Commercio" thinks that mutual benefit will accrue. The paper stresses the importance of the new President studying the coffee question on the spot, remarking that the electoral campaign showed how interested he was in the matter. It is considered that direct observation of certain realities is certain greatly to influence a positive mind like Hoover's.

The "Correio d'Amanha" recalls that Mr. Hoover as Secretary of Commerce made some positive declarations against coffee valorisation, and is of opinion that, unless he relinquishes the idea, he will create a difficult position for the Brazilian Government, which for the first time will have to dissent from the White House's attitude.

The newspaper "Hornal" foresees the removal of "certain prejudices arising from the obsolete interpretation of the Monroe doctrine."—Reuter's American Service.

U.S. IMPORTS

SUGGESTED UPWARD REVISION OF DUTIES

A "DETERMINED EFFORT"

New York, Yesterday. It is reliably learned that certain prominent manufacturers wielding powerful influence in the Republican party councils are preparing a determined effort in the coming year to bring about an upward revision of duties on a number of products, notably raw wool, cotton goods, footwear, linen and pottery. Alternatively they suggest the adoption of the American valuation system, which will automatically very severely handicap European exporters.

Some of the leading importers of British goods, in interviews, incline to the belief that the Hoover administration would sympathetically consider the proposal, but many representatives of English houses do not share this view.—Reuter's American Service.

HONG KONG LOAFERS EXECUTED

SOFT JOBS TEMPT

ANTI-NIPPON BOYCOTT PICKETS TAKE SQUEEZE

"IN FOOTSTEPS OF STRIKERS"

How the lure of soft jobs and "squeeze" has brought about the doom of several Hong Kong loafers is related in an overnight report from Canton.

A number of men who live on their wits, one formerly a share-broker's clerk and another a doctor (Chinese practice), went up to Canton recently where they obtained appointments as officials of the anti-Japan Boycott Society.

The ex-doctor's influence secured the posts for himself and his friends and they went out on search parties. Incidentally, flaunting their badges at ferries, etc. to obtain free privileges.

Merchants Complain

Following complaints by merchants, the Police became active. Two of the Hong Kong men were arrested and four other searchers were also locked up. The allegation against them is that they have "misconducted themselves like the Strike pickets before them" and have been dishonest in taking bribes to smuggle Japanese goods through.

The two Hong Kong men were shot on East parade ground on Saturday. Those who went up with them and failed to resist temptation are now back in Hong Kong.

"YOUNG CHANG"

IS NOT GOING SOUTH YET AWHILE

CHINESE NAVY UPSET

Shanghai, Saturday. Hsing Shih-lien on Friday informed Pressmen that he was proceeding to Nanking to settle the Jehol problem, the question as to whether the Fengtien troops should withdraw from Liaoning and also to inform the Nationalist Government that Chang Hsueh-liang was unlikely to come south at present.

It is reported that dissatisfaction exists in the senior ranks of the Chinese as a result of the Government cutting down the monthly grant from half a million to a quarter of a million dollars monthly. Admirals Tu Shih-wei and Li Ting-hsing have convened a meeting for the purpose of discussing the situation.—Reuter.

THE ERUPTION

A NEW MASCALI TO BE BUILT

MUSSOLINI'S CAREER

Catania, Saturday. The promptest measures to mitigate the hardships caused by the Etna eruption have been initiated by Signor Mussolini, who has ordered a start to be made in building 300 houses to form the nucleus of a new Mascali immediately the lava flow ceases.

Hitherto, the loss of land amounts to 200 acres. There are 4,300 refugees and the relief subscriptions include 25,000 lire from the Pope.

An Aviator's Report. As the lava reaches the plain it is extending over a wider front and consequently slowing.

It is hoped, therefore, to save the towns of Giarrè and Riposto. An airman flew over Etna and reported that there were no signs of a diminution of the eruption.—Reuter.

THE P. AND O.

ELECTRICALLY-DRIVEN SHIPS

London, Saturday. Lord Kylsant in the course of a statement at Southampton said that an electrically-driven passenger ship is now being constructed on the Clyde for the P. and O. Company.—Reuter.

NANKING COMMISSION

Nanking, Yesterday. It is understood that the Chinese Commission to settle the compensation claims in connection with the Nanking Incident of March, 1927 is holding its first meeting this week.—Reuter.

LI CHAI-SUM'S PLANS

LATEST REPORT

RETURNING FOR TWO STATED PURPOSES

"THEN BACK TO NANKING"

After several postponements, Marshal Li Chai-sum (head of the Canton Government), according to the latest report, is to return next week.

Says the "Kung Sheung Yat Po":—"Marshal Li Chai-sum and General Chan Ming-shu (commanding the 11th Nationalist Army and Rehabilitation Commissioner for the south of Kwangtung) have decided to sail from Shanghai on Nov. 17 for Canton."

A Nanking correspondent refers to Marshal Li's work in opening the offices of Chief of General Staff in the Nationalist Army having occupied so much of his time.

Chief of Staff

Marshal Li and General Chan are returning to Canton, the correspondent adds, "to put into operation the reduction of soldiers (in Kwangtung) and to attend to the centralisation of (Canton's) finances in the National Government." When he has concluded his work in Canton, Marshal Li will come back to Nanking to continue in office (as Chief of General Staff). During Marshal Li's absence from Nanking, General Chang Kuo-yuan, his deputy, will act as Chief of Staff.

PULLING AHEAD

BRITON'S LITTLE "GROUSE" THAT MEANS NOTHING

TOO MUCH FEAR & DESPAIR

There seem to be too much fear and despair in Britain nowadays. If we could only recapture the spirit of the old merchant adventurers we could yet rule the world of commerce again.—Sir Malcolm Robertson, British Ambassador to the Argentine.

Englishmen are always grumbling at themselves, but they get there just the same. Foreigners are amazed at the efficiency of British industry.—The Federation of British Industries.

Has Britain lost her old spirit? Are her merchants lagging behind in the world's race for trade, because they have no longer got the energy and vitality and enterprise of former days?

A very frank opinion was that given by a man who has come back from America to urge British firms to trade with California.—Mr. Gerald Campbell, Britain's Consul General at San Francisco.

"We suffered more from the shock of the war than we realised at the time," he said recently at the Department of Overseas Trade. "It is bound to take us some little time before we are on our feet again."

New Methods. "I am always boosting the Empire out in San Francisco. Whenever they say we're down and out I say they're wrong—that the Empire is going to be the biggest thing ever seen."

"I have come back to London to find out if we have got any initiative left. It is no use, us grumbling."

"The Americans have got initiative and enormous resources. We have got enormous resources in the Empire, but they won't be any good if we keep our pioneering spirit locked up in a cupboard."

"British merchants don't like to change their methods, but they will have to do so if they want to capture the markets of the New World. They must sell goods in the American way."

"They must go in for publicity. Heads of firms must go out themselves to study the land."

The Federation of British Industries failed to the defence. "It is unfair to talk about the old merchant adventurers," said an official. "They went out to open up fresh fields—to find new markets among savages on virgin soils."

Not an Adventure. "But the world is now parcelled out into markets, and traders have got to compete with their rivals in the established markets."

"It is not an adventure. It is wrestling with hard facts."

"There has been an enormous increase in the efficiency of British production. Observers from overseas are amazed at the high level it has reached."

PEKING OFFICIALS DEAD BROKE

SENT HOME

2,000 EX-GOVERNMENTAL SERVANTS ON STREETS

NO WORK FOR THEM

Peking. Two thousand former government officials, "dead broke" after months of unemployment, are being shipped to their homes by charitable organisations in Peking.

These men worked for Chang Tso-lin and other warlords who have occupied Peking in the past. Many of them have worked for the Peking government steadily since 1912, when the Republic was established.

But with the capital elsewhere, Peking has no work for them, and they and their families are destitute.—United Press.

"SOME LIGHT RAIN"

For Hong Kong and that part of the adjacent coast between Hainan and the Lamoeks, the forecast till noon to-morrow is:—N. E. winds, fresh; generally overcast, some light rain.

For the Formosa Channel, the forecast is:—N. E. winds, strong. At 10.45 a.m. to-day the Observatory reported:—The anticyclone is central to the west of Vladivostok. Fresh to strong monsoon may be expected along the S. E. coast of China and over the N. China Sea.

MARINES

WITHDRAWALS FROM CHINA

IMPROVED CONDITIONS

Washington, Saturday. The Government has decided to withdraw a number of marines from the brigade in China in consequence of an improvement in conditions but a complete unit of marines will be kept at Tientsin and Shanghai in readiness for service in case of emergency.—Reuter's American Service.

"AIR-COOLED"

NEW COWLING FOR ENGINES

New York, Saturday. The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics announce the invention of a new cowling for radial air-cooled engines. The cowling covers the entire engine, but lets in sufficient air to cool the cylinders. The air issues from the rear of the cowling in a stream-line around the fuselage, thus cutting down air resistance. This cowling has increased the speed of a small army machine by 19 miles an hour.—Reuter's American Service.

CHINA SIGNS RADIO CONTRACT

PLAN DEVELOPMENT

PROJECT DESIGNED TO BREAK BRITISH CABLE MONOPOLY

INVOLVES $500,000

Shanghai, Nov. 6. The long deadlock which blocked the development of radio communication between China, the United States and other countries was broken to-day as a result of the contract between the Nationalist government and the Radio Corporation of America, whereby China will purchase two "20-40" kilowatt short wave overseas transmission wireless apparatus capable of establishing direct communication between Shanghai and San Francisco.

The contract was signed by Chang Ching-kiang, representing the Nationalist government bureau of reconstruction, and A. B. Tyrrell and C. F. Shockley, representing the Radio Corporation of America and the Radio Corporation of the Philippines, the latter a subsidiary corporation. The amount involved in the contract is approximately a quarter of a million dollars gold, one-third of which was deposited in a local bank to-day and the balance payable upon the completion of the station, which will require practically a year. The project is planned to break the British cable monopoly.—Chicago Tribune correspondent.

PVT. F. M. SOARES

MEMORIAL UNVEILED IN KING'S PARK

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

An impressive ceremony was performed by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, (the Hon. W. T. Southern, C.M.G.), at the Club de Recreo, King's Park, Kowloon, at noon yesterday when he unveiled a memorial sun dial dedicated to the memory of Private Francisco Maria Soares, of the Middlesex Regiment, a member of the local Portuguese community and of the Club, who was killed in action at Ypres on April 5, 1915.

The memorial was erected on a plot of ground in front of the main entrance to the Club, and was fringed with a margin of red and green vegetation into which large red poppies were interspersed. The whole was enclosed by a low white fence, and gave a very artistic touch to the Club's fine lawns. The dial which was of glazed black granite was draped with a flag bearing the colours of the Club de Recreo and this was removed by His Excellency when unveiling the memorial.

Guard of Honour. His Excellency was accompanied by Major H. B. L. Dowling, and was received by a Guard of Honour drawn from the Portuguese Co., of the Hong Kong Volunteers, with a General Salute whilst the Volunteer Band, which was also in attendance, played the National Anthem. Practically all the members of the Legislative and Executive Councils, and the Consular Body were present, many of the latter attending in full dress.

After the unveiling ceremony, Mrs. Soares, mother of the late Mr. F. M. Soares was presented to His Excellency by Mr. J. M. da Rocha, President of the Club de Recreo. President's Speech. Addressing the large gathering prior to the unveiling ceremony, Mr. J. M. da Rocha, in a touching speech, said:—

Your Excellencies, Ladies and Gentlemen.—It may seem rather late in the day for the Club de Recreo to discharge its obligation to one of its members, whose name is inscribed in the Roll of Honour, by perpetuating his memory in the shape of a memorial erected within the Club grounds.

The delay is capable of explanation. Until the Club had its own building in this beautiful park, the idea of a memorial for the late Francisco Maria Soares had to be deferred, and we are gathered here to-day in the performance of a mournful duty, the unveiling of a modest memorial for a late member who made the supreme sacrifice in the World War.

In First Contingent. Our late friend together with a sign by members of the Consular few of our compatriots joined up at Hong Kong and left the Colony

REPUBLIC IN NAME ONLY

STATE OF CHINA

TITLE IS ONLY A PLEASANTRY OF KUOMINTANG

A PARTY AUTOCRACY

Peking. An indication of the proportion of people who have an actual share in the government of China under the Kuomintang (Nationalist Party) is given by official figures stating that there are 1,512 members of the Kuomintang in Peking.

The population of Peking is placed roughly at 800,000, so that about one person in four hundred has a share in the activities of the party which rules China. It is probable that this proportion is greater in Peking than in many other parts of the country, so that perhaps one person in five hundred throughout China owes allegiance to the Kuomintang.

The Nanking leaders have decided to retain the title of the "Republic of China," but this is merely an euphemism. China is ruled by a party autocracy, the Central Executive Committee elects all the important government officials, and this Central Committee in turn is elected by the annual session of the Kuomintang.—United Press.

DANGEROUS SPOT

THREE MEN INJURED IN QUEEN'S ROAD

LORRY SWERVES

Three men were injured on Saturday in a motor accident at Queen's-road, West, at a point where a road leads up to the Government Civil Hospital. It may be recalled that on the morning of Oct. 31, a motor accident occurred on the same spot, a pedestrian being pinned against the wall and killed.

At about 11.30 a.m. on Saturday motor lorry, No. 1264, of the Hang Lok Co., was travelling from west to east when it met another motor vehicle coming from the opposite direction. The former swerved to the wall and in consequence three men were injured.

on December 4, 1914, on the troopship "Delta" with the first contingent as a Volunteer unit. Until then he was a member of the Hong Kong Volunteers. Soon after his arrival at Chatham, he was found efficient enough for active service and was posted to the 3rd Battalion Middlesex Regiment as a Private and to our great sorrow was killed in action on April 5, 1915.

Like so many hundreds of thousands, young Soares died a glorious death in the very prime of life. It was at the age of 23 years that a "brother" of a Portuguese Hong Kong boy passed to the Great Beyond on the field of Flanders. He was buried in Chester Farm Cemetery, Plot 1, Row C grave 13, two miles south of Ypres.

"To live in hearts we leave behind."

Thus lives the memory of "Frank" in the hearts of all his compatriots and in the name of the Club de Recreo, I ask your Excellency to unveil this memorial which has been especially designed and constructed by Mr. Ferd. H. Meyer of Oakland, California, in the form of a sundial, and is dedicated to the memory of one of the band of the glorious dead.

Francisco Maria Soares, a Portuguese member of the Hong Kong Volunteers, who died that men might live.

A Brave Man

His Excellency, prior to unveiling the sundial said:—"To the Glory of God: In memory of a brave man, I have now the honour of unveiling this memorial." The strings which held the flag over the sundial were then loosened and the flag was removed.

After the sounding of the Last Post by the buglers who were in attendance, the memorial was blessed by his Lordship Bishop Valtorta. His Excellency then laid a wreath on the memorial and this was followed by floral contributions of exquisite design by members of the Consular few of our compatriots joined up at Hong Kong and left the Colony

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATIONS

IN LONDON

ENORMOUS CROWD AT THE CENOTAPH

ROYALTY PRESENT

London, Yesterday. Dismal weather attended the Armistice Day celebrations in London, but this did not suffice to reduce the enormous crowd assembled in the vicinity of the Cenotaph at which the principal ceremonies were carried out by H.M. the King, wearing a Field Marshal's Service uniform, and attended by the Duke of York and Prince Arthur of Connaught.

His Majesty laid a wreath of Flanders' poppies at the base of the monument shortly before 11 a.m. The Duke of York followed and then Mr. Baldwin and other members of the Cabinet, representatives of the Dominions, Colonies and services.

The two minutes' silence was solemnly observed and broken by the "Last Post," after which "O, God Our Help in Ages Past" was sung, followed by a brief service.

The Reveille and the "National Anthem" closed the ceremony. H.M. the Queen, also the Queen of Spain and all the other British Royal ladies watched the proceedings from the balcony overlooking the Cenotaph.

The proceedings were broadcast throughout the country for the first time.

Her Majesty's Message.

London, Saturday. Queen Mary has issued a message to women throughout the Empire recalling the many "fearless and devoted women" who served as nurses, and who lie in the war cemeteries. But they are not alone in having sacrificed all that, life has to offer. Every man of our million dead may have been dearer than anything on earth to some one woman, and in every part of the Empire are women who go on living with wounds in their hearts which time cannot heal. I wish that my voice could reach each one with a word of loving sympathy.—Reuter.

LOCKED HOUSE

SUICIDE'S LAST MESSAGE

WIDOW'S STORY

How a Chester-square, S.W., resident arrived home from holiday to find his house locked and his governess and housemaid waiting outside, and the discovery later of his caretaker's dead body, was described at Westminster, when Mr. Ingleby Oddie held an inquest on William Edward Clarke, aged 51, who committed suicide by inhaling coal gas.

The widow said that she parted from her husband on account of his drinking habits. Originally, she said, he was an accountant, but he "lost his character," and afterwards took employment as a storekeeper and a clerk, finally becoming a member of the St. Martin's Church Hostel in Grosvenor-road.

Mr. John Francis, warden of the hostel, stated that Clarke's work in the kitchen was so satisfactory that he was recommended for the post of caretaker at Chester-square.

Mr. G. W. Lambert, Clarke's employer, said that when he found he could not get in when he went next door, got out of an attic window, climbed along a parapet, and so entered his own house. When he reached the kitchen he found Clarke lying dead on the floor with his head on a cushion and the end of a flexible tube connected to the gas in his mouth.

A piece of blotting-paper was found, it was stated, upon which Clarke had written:—

"It is a far far better thing that I do than I have ever done."

"Into Thy hands, O God! Into Thy hands."

A verdict of suicide while of unsound mind was recorded.

Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Secretary for War, gave a luncheon recently to General Sir A. Godley and General Sir P. Chetwode, on their departure to take up the respective appointments of Governor of Gibraltar and Chief of the General Staff, India.

Mr. G. S. Bouwer, who set out to motor from Cairo to the Cape in 40 days, arrived at Capetown 30 minutes over the specified time.

OPENING CRUISE

MANY YACHTSWOMEN
TURN OUT

THE ROWING EVENTS

The opening cruise of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club was held on Saturday afternoon, in quite good weather, the morning's drizzle giving way to Old King Sol.

There was a fair attendance of spectators and competitors, including many ladies. Whilst the weather conditions favoured the rowing events, it was not good for yachting, there not being sufficient wind in the earlier part of the afternoon.

Of the four sailing events, only the cruisers were sailed, by the men, whilst ladies had charge of the helms in the other three events. They were well tested by the absence of wind but came through very creditably.

By kind permission of Capt. Snagge, R.N., the Royal Marine and of H.M.S. "Cumberland" was present and contributed much towards the afternoon's enjoyment with a fine programme of music. Tea was served on the Club lawn during the afternoon.

Mrs. J. L. Pearson, wife of Commodore Pearson, gave away the prizes at the close of the regatta, and was herself presented with a bouquet of flowers in a silver holder by little Miss Greig.

Before the distribution of prizes, the Commodore, Mr. A. L. Shields, in addressing those present, said that there was not quite enough wind for the sailing events but the rowing conditions were excellent. The "Hornell" Cup, he continued, was won by Jardine's crew by three lengths and he wished to congratulate them on their excellent showing. They started only two months ago with four men but by hard work and "sticking to it," they had won the cup that afternoon. It was a very worthy effort. Jardine's had not entered a crew for a long time and it was hoped to see more of them in the future.

Mr. Shields went on to say he was sorry to note the absence of crews from the Hong Kong Electric Company who were previously the holders of the "Hornell" Cup. The P.W.D., Asiatic Petroleum Company and the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank.

Further Hong races would be held next month when it was hoped that they would enter teams.

A Hard Fight

Referring to the crew from Canton, who were to visit Hong Kong but were unable to do so, the Commodore, after remarking that it had tended to detract from the interest of the programme, said he understood that Canton was unable to raise a crew owing to sickness. He hoped, however, that they would see a Canton crew next month.

In stating the various winners, Mr. Shields commented that Miss May, who won the Gael Class (Class letters G. and I.) with Joan, had had little experience and entered the boat at the last minute to make the race. The cruisers, he remarked, had a hard fight in getting back to the Club as they were travelling against the tide with very little wind.

Going Home

In expressing thanks to the sub-committee, officials, Capt. Snagge of H.M.S. "Cumberland" for permitting the band to attend and Mr. Carter for mapping out the course, Mr. Shields pointed out that Mr. Carter had undertaken the arduous task of mapping the course for the past few years.

In conclusion, the speaker referred to the impending departure of Commodore and Mrs. Pearson, who are leaving the Colony next month. Commodore Pearson had been an active member of the committee for two years and had taken a very great interest in rowing. Mr. Shields added he took that opportunity of wishing their departing friends every happiness and prosperity and hoped that they would carry away with them pleasant memories of Hong Kong and of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club.

Mrs. Pearson then distributed the cups to the successful competitors, after which she was presented with a bouquet by Miss Greig.

Three rousing cheers were then given for Commodore and Mrs. Pearson.

"Hornell" Cup

This race for "Hong" fours over a one mile course, attracted crews from Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., Talkoo, and Messrs. Shewan Tomes and Co., Ltd., and was won by Jardine's by three lengths, with Talkoo in second place. Shewan Tomes were forced to drop out of the race soon after the start owing to Mr. H. Dreyer, who had gone out to row in spite of feeling indisposed, being unable to carry on. The other two shells made a good race of it, keeping close together for a considerable distance, with Jardine's always slightly in the lead. They spurred strongly when passing in front of the Club-house and eventually crossed the line three lengths in front of their rivals.

The crews were:—
Jardine's.—Bow, W. Smith (156 lbs.), No. 2, R. D. C. Greive (158 lbs.), No. 3, A. H. Chambers (152 lbs.). Stroke, J. A. E. Kendrew (167 lbs.). Cox, A. Murdoch (155 lbs.).
Talkoo.—Bow, W. E. Price (142 lbs.), No. 2, R. J. Carter (178 lbs.), No. 3, J. D. H. Crawford (176 lbs.). Stroke, O. Moor (164 lbs.). Cox, I. E. L. Mackay (135 lbs.).
Shewan, Tomes.—Bow, W. G. Lawson (143 lbs.), No. 2, B. Rasmussen (173 lbs.), No. 3, J. R. L. Stanton (178 lbs.). Stroke, H. Deyer (182 lbs.). Cox, I. Shewan, 143 lbs.)

"Denison" Challenge Cup
Over a distance of ¾ mile, this event for Club Junior Pairs attracted two entries, one being composed of German members of the Club, whilst the other was a British crew. From a good start, the Germans immediately went in front and kept in the lead all the way to the finishing line. The British pair kept very close to the Germans throughout the race, but were unable to cope with their rivals' spurt when about 200 yards from home. The Germans won a good race by two lengths.

The crews were:—
Germans.—Bow, G. Hansen (152 lbs.), Stroke W. Sparleder (154 lbs.). Cox, E. W. Schramm (150 lbs.).
British.—Bow, H. Burson (154 lbs.), Stroke, W. J. Purvis (157 lbs.). Cox, F. Lenfesty (150 lbs.).

Scratch Senior Pairs
This event was also over a course of ¾ mile. Originally three pairs were entered for this event, but owing to H. Dreyer's indisposition his shell did not start. The race again became a struggle between a German and a British pair, and the Germans again scored a very fine win by 1½ lengths. This race was very closely contested, but the British pair started their spurt rather late in the race when the Germans were leading by about three lengths in the last 200 yards. The British managed to reduce this lead by more than half, but the Germans had enough left in them to keep in front to win by 1½ lengths.

The crews were:—
Germans.—Bow, R. Schmidt (157 lbs.), Stroke, H. Dayle (154 lbs.). Cox, E. W. Schramm (150 lbs.).
British.—Bow, W. R. Andrews (172 lbs.), Stroke, L. F. Nicholson (162 lbs.). Cox, F. Lenfesty (150 lbs.).

The following were the officials of the day:—

SHANGHAI RACES

THREE FIRSTS FOR EVE STABLE

GRAND NATIONAL RESULT

The fourth day's events of the Shanghai Race Club's autumn meeting were decided on Saturday. There were only nine events on the card, a smaller number than usual. Judging by most of the times returned, the going was probably heavy, on account of rain.

While Boxing Eve captured the Aggregate Cup down here and Misty Eve completed a double for "Mr. Eve" (the stable of which Sir Victor Sassoon of Messrs. E. D. Sassoon's is principal), stable companions secured a treble in Shanghai.

Jockeys' Successes

Mr. Pote-Hunt rode two of these winners and Mr. H. Maitland the other. Both riders are very popular in Hong Kong.

Mr. McBain won the Grand National Steeplechase on Captain Cuttle. At the autumn meeting in 1927, Captain Cuttle was third to Buster II who finished second. Buster II who finish second third in this year's spring meeting, took third place.

Mr. "Bill" Hill, who has remarkable successes in Hong Kong to his credit, was the only jockey besides Mr. Pote-Hunt to win two races. Detailed results follow:—

SANITARY BOARD

THE AGENDA FOR NEXT MEETING

LETTERS & QUERIES

The "Orders of the Day" at the tomorrow's meeting of the Sanitary Board are as follows:—

1. Letter from Government relative to the erection of forty-three European and ten native type water closets at ten houses in Nathan-road on Kowloon Inland Lot Nos. 403, 406 section A. R.P., 407 section A and 619.
2. Letter from Government relative to the retention of two European type water closets at the City Hall on Marine Lot No. 82.
3. Letter from Government relative to the erection of one European and one native type water closets at No. 269 The Peak (No. 6 Stewart Terrace) on Rural Building Lot No. 304.
4. Letter from Government relative to the erection of twelve European and two native type water closets at No. 8 The Peak on Rural Building Lot No. 61.
5. Mr. J. P. Braga, pursuant to notice, will ask:—

"Attention having been drawn in the Press to the need for a children's playground at Wanchai, and in view of the approaching completion of the Praya East Reclamation, will the Government make known its plans regarding the allocation of any land for open spaces and recreation grounds in the Wanchai district?"

What provision has been made out of public funds to lay out and maintain a playground in the Wanchai district similar to those now available for children on the Peak and at Kowloon?

If no scheme for a children's playground is yet in contemplation, will the Government consider the advisability, in the interest of public health, of reserving a site for recreation purposes to meet the pressing want of children of the working classes residing at Wanchai?

6. Mr. J. P. Braga, pursuant to notice, will ask:—

"I. Regarding the Public Mortuary at Kowloon will the President state whether—

(a) The Town Planning Committee made any recommendation with reference thereto?

(b) What is the nature of such recommendation?

ii. Having regard to the fact that the Mortuary is situated within the residential area of Kowloon, and is a real nuisance to nearby residents, will the Government consider its removal to a site not open to the same objections as the present?"

7. Dr. W. V. M. Koch, pursuant to notice, will ask:—

"i. Will the Head of the Sanitary Department ascertain for the information of the Board whether any attempts have been made by responsible authorities to find out, by boring, the existence of springs on the island.

ii. Has any report on the Geological survey of the Island and Mainland been drawn up lately; and if so has such report been made public?—if not is there any intention to make such report public?

iii. Assuming such survey to have been made, are there any indications of the existence of springs on the island, especially in and about Mount Parker, and if so, is it not possible to tap them and ensure a reasonable addition to the water stored in the various Reservoirs?"

8. Dr. W. V. M. Koch, pursuant to notice, will ask:—

"i. Will the Head of the Sanitary Department inform the Board whether steps are being continuously taken towards the problem of Malaria Prevention and Elimination? If so, what

CHINESE Y.M.C.A.

BREAKING THE SOD FOR THE KOWLOON BRANCH

ADDRESS BY DR. YUI

The Chinese Y.M.C.A. has a full programme for to-day in connection with the visit of Dr. David Yui, the National General Secretary.

The chief event is the ceremony of breaking ground for the Kowloon Branch in Waterloo-road at 3 p.m. Mr. K. L. Chau, M.A., of Queen's College, the President of the organisation will have charge of the exercises.

After the invocation by Rev. Cheung Chuk-ling, a history of the development of the Kowloon Branch will be given by Mr. Y. H. Cheuk, a director of the Y.M.C.A. and a member of the Kowloon Committee. Following this, the first sod will be turned by Sir Robert Ho Tung, Mr. Wang Kam-fuk, and others.

A brief address will be given by Dr. Yui.

Following the ceremony, the European Y.M.C.A. will entertain the Directors of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. to tea in their building in Salisbury-road, Kowloon. The party will include the former directors as well as the present ones, and is in the nature of a reunion of those who have built up the Chinese Y.M.C.A. through the twenty-five years of its history.

The first building of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. was erected in Bridges-street in 1912. It served as general headquarters until the men's building was completed in 1918, after which it was placed at the disposal of the Junior Division. The men's building has now been in use for ten years, and provides for about 2,000 members. The need for a branch in Kowloon has long been evident. More than 250 of the present members live on that side of the harbour. As long ago as 1923 funds were sought for a branch there and land was procured in Waterloo-road.

But only this year has the fund reached an amount to warrant going forward with the building. The first unit is a building to cost $45,000, with equipment. It consists of club rooms, athletic grounds and dormitory for young business men. Construction will begin to-day and will be completed in ten months.

The Y.M.C.A. is developing plans which will provide ultimately for branches so located as to meet the needs of young men throughout the Colony. The Kowloon branch is a step in that programme.—Contributed.

steps have been taken recently and to what extent?

ii. As presumably the Authorities are in possession of the Report by Surgeon Commander Given R.N. on the Prevalence of Malaria in the Colony, may we be informed whether any action has been taken in accordance with his recommendations. If so, what steps have been taken?—if not why have steps not been taken.

iii. Is the Department aware that in the pools and small streams alongside the road from the Peak to Aberdeen, Malaria carrying mosquitoes have been found quite recently all the way down to the Pokfulam Reservoir; and that in the pools formed by the nullah running across Harlech-road Anophelines are also to be found and that probably in consequence some cases of Malaria have occurred which can be traced to these sources, notably the case of an infant—will steps be taken to deal with these sources of infection?"

9. Minute by the President relative to a letter from Government in connection with the exemption from the requirements of section 175 of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance, in respect of No. 48 Cochrane-street.

10. Plan for the proposed Public Latrine at the junction of Cross-street and Spring Garden-lane.

11. Report from the Government Bacteriologist on the Peak, Eastern, Albany, Bowen-road, Elliott, West Point, Aberdeen, Shaikwan, Chai Wan and Kowloon water supplies for the month of October, and on the Eastern, Shaikwan and Chai Wan water supplies for the month of November, 1928.

12. Health Bulletin of Eastern Ports from the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services for the weeks ending October 20 and 27, 1928.

13. Health Return from the League of Nations, Eastern Bureau for the weeks ending August 29 and September 5, 1928.

14. Record of Infectious Disease from Ministry of Health for the weeks ending August 29 and September 5, 1928.

15. Cattle and Swine Returns for the month of October, 1928.

16. Lime-washing Return for the fortnight ending October 27, 1928.

17. Rat Return for the weeks ending October 20 and 27, 1928.

A.D.C. SHOW

"THE SPORT OF KINGS"

GOOD PROGRESS

Booking for the Hong Kong Amateur Dramatic Club's forthcoming production "The Sport of Kings" is progressing in a most encouraging manner and our local Theatres are already assured of a repetition of the wholehearted support the community has always given them.

Hard work continues with the cast and Friday next will find them well prepared for the heavy demands the play makes on them. From principals to supernas there is a keenness which assures success and all are eager to face the starter and carry the A.D.C. colours first past the post!

The action of the play takes place, for the most part, in the library of Newstead Grange, Surrey; the residence of a war-profitier, one Amos Purdie J.P. and for this scene Mr. C. P. Anderson, F.R.I.B.A. has specially designed a very charming set of the Tudor period which will give the players an admirable background. It will, in itself, be a striking feature of the production. Messrs. Lane, Crawford & Co. will be responsible for the furnishings which are again being prepared under the personal supervision of Mr. H. E. Scriven.

The cast of the play is as follows:—

Amos Purdie J.P. ... W. A. Hannibal
Mrs. Purdie ... Lucy Greensmith
Joe Purdie ... P. Sands
Katie Purdie ... Evelyn Harriman
Dulcie Primrose ... Margaret Chubb
Algernon Spring ...

G. Stopani Thompson
Sir Reginald Toothill ... O. C. Warner
Bates ... Butler ... C. P. Marcel
Albert ... Boots ... J. N. Owen
Cook ... Judy Marcel
Twenty ... Kathleen Robertson
Jane ... Gracie Syme Thompson
Panama Pete ... A. Bookmaker

R. H. Charles
Police Sergeant ... A. H. White
Barnard ... Billie Bond
Newsboy ... Ian Black

There is a prologue, set in the champagne bar at a Race Meeting, and a mechanical change, occupying two minutes, is made to the library, already described; where the remainder of the performance takes place.

By kind permission of Capt. G. Hopwood, C.B.E., R.N., and Officers, the Band of H.M.S. "Hermes" will provide the incidental music.

The opening night is Friday next, November 16, at the Theatre Royal, where the play will be repeated on Tuesday, November 20 and Saturday, November 24.

Kowloon residents are again reminded of the performance at the Star Theatre on Thursday, November 22, and we feel confident the A.D.C.'s enterprise in this connection will be rewarded by a warm welcome when they make their debut on the Peninsula.

SHIP ASHORE

CHINESE "HSIN CHI" AT TAI ISLAND

J.C.J.L. BOAT STANDS BY

Shanghai, Yesterday.
It is reported that the China
Merchants S. N. Co.'s s.s. "Hsin Chi" with 200 passengers, was wrecked in a fog on November 9 at Tai Island. The Java-China-Japan
Lijn s.s. "Tjitaroom" is standing by and the passengers are reported to have been taken ashore to the island. The Captain is remaining on board.—Reuter.

A Naval wireless message stated that the vessel grounded at Tai Island, near Incog Light, and that the s.s. "Tjitaroom" was standing by to rescue the passengers at daylight.

H.M.S. "Seraph" has proceeded to the assistance of the "Hsin Chi".
It will be recalled that the "Hsin Chi" was pirated when between
Shanghai and Poochow in August, 1927 and taken to Bias Bay, where the pirates took with them the commodore and one Chinese passenger as hostages.

The "Hsin Chi" is of 1,846 tons gross and 1,385 tons net.

THE "MONSTER"

TO BE PROPELLED BY ELECTRICITY

London, Saturday.
The announcement that the new 60,000 ton White Star liner, now under construction at Belfast will be propelled by electricity, was made by Lord Kylant on his return from New York, where he completed plans for the construction of special piers of sufficient length to accommodate the monster.—Reuter.

A FEW PERTINENT QUESTIONS

To-morrow's meeting of the local Sanitary Board promises to be one of more than usual interest, as we note that, according to the "Orders of the Day," several items of considerable public importance are down on the agenda for discussion. Mr. J. P. Braga and Dr. W. V. M. Koch have a few pertinent questions to put to the President of the Board, and the public generally will await the answers with keenness. We are especially glad to observe that Mr. Braga is calling attention to the desirability of providing a playground on the Praya East Reclamation for the benefit of the children of that neighbourhood. The President is asked: "What provision has been made out of public funds to lay out and maintain a playground in the Wanchai district similar to those now available for children on the Peak and a Kowloon?" And the Government is further asked to state whether, in the event of no such playground being contemplated, will they "in the interests of public health, consider the advisability of reserving a site for recreation purposes to meet the pressing wants of children of the working classes residing at Wanchai." We Mr. Braga has another question to put to the President, and one of a very different kind. It is to the effect that the mortuary in Kowloon be removed to a more suitable quarter. The question is asked as to whether the Town Planning Committee have made any recommendation regarding the matter; and it is further stated that the Mortuary in its present position "is a real nuisance to nearby residents" situated as it is within the residential area. Such an institution should, of course, be removed as far as possible from all residents and, on that ground alone, the question is in every respect pertinent. The questions to be asked by Dr. Koch (or rather answered, as they are, like those of Mr. Braga's, made "pursuant to notice") are of quite a different kind, falling, as it were, within another category, much more scientific than domestic. Dr. Koch wants to know if any report on the geological survey of the island and mainland has been drawn up lately; and "if so, is there any intention to make such report public?"

More important, it seems to us, is his next query to the effect that: "As presumably the authorities are in possession of the report of Surgeon Commander Given, R.N., on the prevalence of malaria in the Colony, may we be informed whether any action has been taken in accordance with his recommendations. If so, what steps have been taken?—if not why have steps not been taken?" It seems to us that when a medical man of Dr. Koch's standing inquires if "we may be informed" on such a subject obviously the Government will readily comply. At least we hope so, as the matter is undoubtedly of considerable interest to the community as a whole, all the more so, as the opinion is generally held, we believe, that malaria is nowadays practically unknown in the Colony. Dr. Koch, we note, in another query that is coming up (or rather is likely to be answered) at to-morrow's meeting points out that "malaria-carrying mosquitoes have been found quite recently all the way down to the Pokfulam Reservoir and that in the pools formed by the nullah running across Harlech-road anophelines are also to be found and that in consequence some cases of malaria have occurred which can be traced to these sources." The Department is asked if it "is aware" of this, and it will be very interesting to know what they have to say on this point, which, of course, is one of very great importance. Both Dr. Koch and Mr. Braga perform a highly useful public service in calling the attention of the Sanitary Board to these and other matters of public interest and importance.

On Saturday afternoon, a Chinese was taken to the Government Civil Hospital as the result of being knocked down by a motor car. In Connaught-road, West, near the Western Market, the man had jumped off a moving tramcar when the motor car, which was about to pass the tramcar, collided with him. The Chinese was thrown heavily and fractured a leg

TEN YEARS AGO

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVED
IN HONG KONG

CATHEDRAL SERVICE

A large congregation and a stirring sermon were the features of the Armistice Day service held yesterday in St. John's Cathedral. Among those who attended were H.E. the Officer Administering the Government (the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southern, C.M.G.) and Mrs. Southern, Captain A. J. L. Whyte, A.D.C., Major H. B. L. Dowbiggin, Hon. A.D.C.; H.E. the General Officer Commanding (Major-General C. C. Luard, C.B., C.M.G.), Mrs. Luard and Miss Luard, Lt. R. Q. F. Johnson, A.D.C.; Commodore J. L. Pearson, C.M.G., and Mrs. Pearson, Pay Comdr. H. Rogers, O.B.E. (Secretary); members of the Consular Body; detachments from the Royal Navy, the Army, Royal Air Force, Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, St. John Ambulance Brigade, Mercantile Marine, British Legion, Ex-Active Service Men's Association, Royal Marines Old Comrades Association, Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes.

"Sad Welter"

The service was conducted by the Dean (Very Rev. A. Swann, D.S.C.), the Rev. H. V. Koop and Major C. S. Little, S.C.F.

Singing the hymn "O Valiant Hearts, Who to Your Glory Came," the choir walked up the aisle followed by bearers of wreaths to be dedicated. Followed the Responses, a prayer, the Patriotic Psalm, the reading of the lesson (John IV 7-12) by Major Little, the hymn "O Son of Man, Our Hero Strong and Tender," and the Dean's sermon, as follows:—

Ten years ago to-day the Great War ended. Those four mad, ghastly years had at last dragged themselves out to a conclusion, and left the world reeling and staggering like a drunken man. We look back to-day over the intervening ten years and try to see straight about the almost incredible mixture which went to make up the war—the glory of heroism, the blaze of self-sacrifice, the sad welter of misery and the deep darkness of mass hatred, suspicion and deceit.

Sob of Relief

Ten years ago to-day a great sob of relief burst from the hearts of millions of men and women of many races. Agonised tears expressed it for many, a deep "Thank God" for others, while for much too large a number it found expression in a wild and thoughtless yell of victory!

Ten years have helped us to see the thing in proportion. On the first Armistice Day we were almost entirely selfish. As we had been selfish and thoughtless of the individuals of other races who were our enemies in the war, so we were largely thoughtless of anyone's feelings except our own when the massacre ended. We had been drugged for four years and our heads were still fuddled. We had lost the power to see straight and steadily. But now it is different. The effect of the drugs has worn off, our eyes have cleared, so that, like the blind man healed by Jesus, instead of seeing men as trees—mere units in a forest to be felled if they get in our way—we are beginning to see them now as invaluable children of one great Humanity, the Family of God.

Great Humanity

All through the war, on either side of the trenches, self-satisfaction on the one hand and hatred and contempt on the other, were fostered and turned out as by mass production. And for war this is essential and while it lasts it will be so. This is what makes war such a damnable thing. For its successful conduct these things must be. Men must be maddened before they will kill one another. It is not in the normal, healthy make-up of man to do so. Passions must be aroused and encouraged: the flames of bitterness must be fed, else the best nature of man will assert itself and spoil the war.

Thus, on this Armistice Day, our thoughts turn with great humanity to the millions of men and women, in all the nations engaged, who were broken and crushed in body, mind and spirit, by the devilish machinery of war.

Illusions Going

Our illusions about war have almost vanished. No one will deny, of course, that some glorious characteristics are evoked by it. A natural unity of aim and purpose, magnificent courage and self-sacrifice, stern self-discipline and persistent devotion to duty, wonderful comradeship and triumphant cheerfulness in the midst of misery. These things are some of the peaks of human attainment. But, whereas we once praised war itself, for producing these glories, we now realise that we need such virtues desperately for peace and not for war, and that war, which certainly calls them out, yet calls out from human nature far more that is evil than that is good.

Our increasing clarity of vision is showing us that the whole blame for war cannot ever be laid at a single doorstep. All the world is, in some way, responsible for the suffering and death which war brings in its train.

Principle of Love

The human race is still refusing to organise its life according to the fundamental principle of love—therefore it suffers as must always be the case—and the innocent suffer with the guilty because we are all one family.

I think that we have at last reached the point of fearless honesty in this matter. And therefore we must admit that those who suffered, and are suffering still, as the result of the war, were sacrificed on a heathen altar—the altar of man's lovelessness—in almost exactly the same way as Jesus Christ, in His life and at His crucifixion, was sacrificed on the altar of man's refusal of God.

Sins of Man

We thank God with all our hearts to-day for all that was magnificent in the men who faced and gave themselves to this sacrifice, but we have need to be utterly humble and penitent for the sins of men which cause war and produce such awful suffering.

But some may say "What have I to do with it? I did not make the war." No, but everyone of us knows perfectly well, if he is honest with himself, that he has within him, on the scale of a single individual, all the seeds which, when they come to their full harvest in social and international life, produce envy, hatred, malice and uncharitableness in the mass and so cause war.

When Jesus walked the earth, He came to men with hands stretched out to bring them all that is good, all joy and truth, love and peace. And men said to Him "We want neither you nor what you bring!" and they thought that by killing Him they would get their way.

Murder of Christ

So they schemed and plotted and died and nailed Him to a cross to hang in ignominy and agony until He died. They cast him out of the vineyard that the inheritance might be theirs. But the inheritance was not theirs. They had refused the way of God and they were the losers. Christ was the victor and the world in its wisest moments acclaims him as such. By His supreme sacrifice he has provided men, for all time, with a picture of what the refusal of God's way results in and the contemplation of that sacrifice is the most powerful possible incentive to a change of mind and life.

The murder of Christ was utterly contrary to the will of God. It was caused by men's sin—but it draws us, like nothing else does, towards the goodness which is personified in him. Just so can the sacrifice of the victims of war shame us to better way of life. This suffering was, like that of Christ, wholly contrary to the will of God, but if it will cause us, who now live and have the building of the world in our hands, to be exceedingly humble about our past mistakes and to determine to build in future on God's foundations alone, it will not have been in vain.

Wrong in the Past

In a few minutes we are going to stand and affirm our belief in God's way of life as stated by Christ in the Sermon on the Mount. These things must be applied to national and international life exactly as to individual life. So long as we refuse to do so, the horrors of war will continue, and more men and women will be sacrificed on the altar of men's sin.

But, having at last, by the Grace of God, come to see clearly where we have been wrong in the past, we have hoped that the future may hold wiser counsels and nobler ideals for the world of to-day and for the generations which will follow us. Therefore, with humility and with sorrow for the past, but with hope for the future, we will use those wreaths, which have been brought here as symbols of our thoughts, and lay them at the Cenotaph with prayer that we may be given the will and the strength to build a new and a better world.

Colony's Memorials

The hymns "Father in Heaven who Lovest All," "These Things Shall Be" and "A Lottier Race" were sung and the service concluded with the National Anthem and the Blessing. The choir walked down the aisle to the Colony's war memorial outside the Cathedral.

H.E. the Officer Administering the Government proceeded to the Memorial to lay a wreath and another was placed by the British Legion.

Wreaths were laid yesterday at the memorial in the Botanic Gardens to the Chinese who fell in the Great War; the ceremony being performed by the British Legion and Ex-Active Service Men's Association.

UNION CHURCH

Borderers Regt. Band Lead the Singing

A special service was held yesterday at Union Church, Kennedy-road.

The singing was led by the Band of the 2nd Batt. King's Own Scottish Borderers under the leadership of the Bandmaster, Mr. W. H. Fitz-Earle, A.R.C.M.

During the service the Band played Sir Edward Elgar's "Immortal Legion," specially composed for Armistice Day commemoration. The first part of the service was conducted by the Rev. F. P. V. Alexander, C.F., and the Rev. F. C. Young (the minister) preached on "Remembrance."

The offertory was for Earl Haig's Fund.

AT THE CENOTAPH

Very Representative Gathering for the Silence

That part of Statue-square on which the Cenotaph stands was lined by a representative gathering at 11 o'clock yesterday for observation of the Two Minutes' Silence, the annual mark of respect to the Glorious Dead. Around the square, people of many nations stood to watch the ceremony, the Supreme Court steps and adjacent buildings being full of spectators.

H.E. the Officer Administering the Government stood at his position near the Cenotaph behind members of the Executive and Legislative Councils.

Representative Parties

In the representative parties from the Army, under H.E. the General Officer Commanding were men from the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, Royal Corps of Signals, 1st Batt. the Queen's Royal Regiment, 1st Batt. the Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment, 2nd Batt. King's Own Scottish Borderers, Royal Army Service Corps, Royal Army Medical Corps, Royal Army Ordnance Corps, Royal Army Pay Corps, Hong Kong Singapore Brigade Royal Artillery, 3/15th Punjab Regiment, Hong Kong Mule Corps.

Commodore Pearson was with a Royal Navy party and there was also a party from the Royal Air Force.

Other parties drawn up on three sides of the Cenotaph were from:—the U.S. Navy, French Navy, Royal Marines Old Comrades Association, Buglers of the 1st Batt. Queen's Royal Regt., members of the Mercantile Marine, Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes, members of the foreign Government and Consular services; R.N. and Army Officers the Band of the 1st Bds. and Herts; St. John Ambulance Brigade; Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Guards Association, Ex-Active Service Men's Association, Pipers of the 2nd Batt. King's Own Scottish Borderers, British Legion, Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps.

The Service

The Pipers of the 2nd Batt. King's Own Scottish Borderers played the Lament, "Flowers of the Forest." Then the 1st Batt. the Queen's Royal Regt. sounded the "Last Post," during which officers saluted and other ranks stood to attention.

A gun was fired precisely at the hour of 11; a second gun followed to mark the end of the Two Minutes' Silence.

The Buglers of the 1st Batt. the Queen's Royal Regt. sounded the "Reveille," and the hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" was played by the band of the 1st Batt. the Bds. and Herts Regt.

Wreaths were then laid, in order, by H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, the General, Commodore Pearson, senior officers of the American and French Naval detachments, representatives of the Service units, and members of local organisations.

Finally came the community, on all four sides, quietly and impressively and the base of the Cenotaph was soon hidden from view by the mass of beautiful floral tributes.

There was a large gathering at Caroline Hill yesterday when the members and friends of the South China Athletic Association were present at the "At Home." Among those present were:—Dr. R. H. Kotewall, the Hon. Mr. H. T. Creasy, D.F.W., Mr. E. W. Carpenter, Mr. T. H. King, D.C.L., Mr. D. E. Hollands, Rev. G. T. Waldegrave, Mr. C. D. Melbourne, Mr. Tang Shu-kin, Mr. Ho Lu, Mr. Ip Lan-chuen and Mr. Wong Kwong-tin. Mrs. Creasy inspected the Boy Scouts who formed a guard of honour.

The forthcoming marriage is announced of Mr. G. B. Frost of the Kowloon Naval Depot Police and Miss D. L. George of Kowloon.

In celebration of the Coronation of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Japan, the Japanese residents of Hong Kong held a successful athletic sports meeting at Sookumpoo yesterday. There were events for both adults and the students of the Japanese Primary School, and some very good efforts were seen in most of the events. The programme, a fairly long one, started at 10 a.m. and closed soon after 5 p.m., when the prizes were distributed by Mr. Kinoshta, President of the Hong Kong Japanese Residents' Association, under whose auspices the meeting was held.

Yesterday afternoon the Club de Recreo held their first athletic meeting on their ground at King's Park. The function proved to be an unqualified success, and every one of the 22 items on the programme was keenly contested. A notable sprinter was C. d'Almada, who won both the 100 yards and the quarter mile championships, and added further feathers to his cap by capturing the 120 and 220 yards sprints. Madame L. Cervelle, d'Albuquerque, e. Castro, wife of the Portuguese Consul-General, distributed the prizes at the close of the meeting.

THE CORONATION

MORE ABOUT THE CEREMONIES

HISTORIC EVENTS

Kyoto, Saturday.

On December 25, 1926, the Emperor Taisho died and the sacred sword and jewels of the Imperial regalia were transferred to his eldest son, whose legal succession as Emperor was thereupon announced. A year of national mourning followed and, on its completion, there began a series of ceremonies all leading up to the formal enthronement which took place to-day and to the solemn thanksgiving and all-night communing with the spirit of the Sun Goddess which will be carried out on the night of the 14th and 15th.

The Ceremonies

To-day's ceremonies were unlike those connected with coronations in Western lands. The Japanese Emperor, spiritual as well as temporal head of the nation, is his own high priest. There is, therefore, no one to crown him, and there is, in fact, no crown.

Two main ceremonies take place to-day. The first, this morning, is in the nature of worship of Amaterasu, the Sun Goddess, from whom the Japanese Imperial Family claims descent, and of formal announcement to her of the accomplishment and celebration of the new accession. The second will be held this afternoon when, to all intents and purposes, a similar announcement to the country and the World at large will be made.

The Shinkyo-den, the hall in which the morning ceremony took place, stands in the Palace grounds and is a chastely constructed of cypress wood, ornamented with silver and brass, and divided into three parts. The innermost of these forms a sanctuary for the Kashioki Dokoro, the portable shrine containing the Sacred Mirror. The middle section of the hall was reserved for the Emperor and Empress, while a larger outer compartment accommodated the Imperial princes and princesses, high government officials and other participating dignitaries, including the representatives of the foreign Powers.

Striking Spectacle

As the time for the ceremony drew near, the outer gates of the Palace were thrown open and guards of honour took their places before them. Soon after those bidden to attend began to arrive and took up their assigned positions in two long halls of audience, arranged one on either side of the open area before the shrine. The brilliant uniforms of the Japanese officials and of the foreign diplomatic, naval, and military officers, and the Court dresses and sparkling jewels of their wives, presented a striking spectacle. After the guests, came the Princes and Princesses of the Blood, who took up their positions in the Gyo Den, a hall of waiting, there to await the Emperor and Empress who, like them, were clad in the ancient ceremonial robes peculiar to Shinto ritual.

Up to this point, the sights witnessed had been not unlike those seen on similar occasions in western lands, but from this point onwards the Oriental aspect was predominant.

In Yellow Robes

Wearing their flowing yellow robes, the Emperor and Empress approached the hall in which the Imperial princes and princesses were awaiting them. Here they were presented with consecrated water with which to cleanse their hands and the Emperor received a baton, the insignia of priestly office, while his consort received a ceremonial fan.

Following this there came a dignified procession of bearers of drums and gongs, who ranged themselves in the open area before the shrine, seven on either side of the approach thereto. After them came bearers of ceremonial objects—swords, bows and arrows, halberds and shields—twenty persons on either side, in line with the drummers and gong bearers, but nearer the shrine. Finally guards of honour, ten on either side, carrying swords and bows, with quivers full of arrows slung on their backs, took up their positions in the same lines nearest the shrine.

Gongs and Drums

To the sound of gongs and drums, all present stood up and the real ceremony commenced. While ancient music was being rendered, the screens that had hitherto hidden the inner shrine from view were opened, and offerings of food were placed on the altars, while the chief ritualist read a prayer. The Emperor, followed by a retinue of princes and high officials, then took his place within the shrine, and the Empress, similarly accompanied by a retinue of princesses, Court ladies and officials, likewise moved to her appointed position there.

With great solemnity, a chamberlain placed the Sacred Sword and Jewels on special stands near the Emperor, who thereupon approached the altar and, after worshipping before it, read a proclamation to the spirit of Amaterasu-Omikami, the Sun Goddess.

This done, the Empress and other members of the Imperial Family, each in turn, worshipped before the altar and then slowly withdrew, followed by their respective retinues.

After all the officials and other dignitaries had performed similar acts of worship, the offerings on the altar were removed and the inner doors of the shrine closed, the while ancient music was being rendered. Thrice more the gongs and drums crashed out. This was the signal for all present to retire. The first of the main ceremonies in connection with the Enthronement, impressive in its solemnity, its simplicity, and its ancient rites, was at an end.—Reuter.

Final Ceremonies

Whereas this morning's ceremonies were mainly religious in conception, this element was largely absent from those which took place this afternoon. The sacred shrine, before which the Emperor and those participating had worshipped, and which was, in fact, the focal point of this morning's solemn service, was not present. Instead, the outstanding feature of this afternoon's ceremony was the actual enthronement of the Emperor amid the acclamations, not only of those present, but of all His Imperial Majesty's loyal subjects throughout the country, for, by means of special arrangements and careful synchronisation, every man, woman and child in the land was able to shout three lusty "Banzi!" for the new ruler at the appointed moment. The effect was impressive in the extreme, owing to the simultaneous and universal manner in which it was carried out.

The "Main Ceremony"

The main ceremony took place in the Shishin Den, or Throne Hall, in the southern section of the Kyoto Imperial Palace grounds, with the Emperor himself facing south, this being symbolical and indicating he rules his subjects from the north, just as the Pole Star rules the starry hosts above from that direction.

In the centre of the hall, which was a simple but imposing building constructed entirely of cypress wood, with highly polished floor and a massive roof thatched with the bark of the same tree, supported by symmetrical rows of huge wooden columns, stood the thrones of the Emperor and Empress side by side. These also were of cypress heavily lacquered in black and richly overlaid with fine metal work of gold and brass.

Constructed in a series of three stages, from the highest of which rose eight pillars supporting an octagonal canopy, the base of each was a massive, slightly oblong, dais, fenced about with a black lacquered railing embossed with golden Imperial sun crests. Broad steps, glistening mirror-like in their finish of black lacquer, led up to them on each side, while paintings of mythical birds and beasts adorned the sides of the dais.

An Open Court

Facing the Throne Room was a great open court, rounded on three sides by corridors in which the invited guests took their stand. Gateways through these corridors gave access to the courtyard itself. Symbolical trees, banners, and decorations of various kinds lined this courtyard, the brilliant colours of the silk-embroidered banners adding a touch of brightness to the scene. This was the setting in which the actual enthronement ceremony took place, and the placing of the guards of honour early in the afternoon outside two of the gates leading into the Palace grounds was the first indication that the appointed hour was near.

The Guests

Those bidden to the ceremony started soon after to assemble outside the gates leading to the corridors enclosing the courtyard fronting the Throne Room. Here were to be seen the highest naval, military and civil officials of the land together with members of the nobility and other Japanese dignitaries of high rank, accompanied by their wives. Here too were the representatives of Great Britain and the other friendly Powers with their ladies, resplendent in court attire. The brilliant uniforms and decorations of the male guests, the mixture of Japanese kimono and bejewelled foreign dresses of their women-folk, and the stately Shinto ceremonial robes of those participating directly in the ceremonies presented an imposing picture, such as could be seen in no other country.

QUEEN'S THEATRE

RAMON NOVARRO IN NEW ROLE

A GAY HEARTBREAKER

Ramon Novarro, the handsome hero of "Bon-Hur" and "The Student Prince" has an entirely different kind of role—a heart-breaker—in his latest film "A Certain Young Man," which will be shown at the Queen's Theatre from Thursday to Saturday next, according to a special advertisement in this issue.

The story starts with the adventures of a young boulevardier whose flirtations are the talk of staid old London, and when he goes to Biarritz and other play grounds of Southern France in order to escape too many pretty women, the real romance develops. Marceline Day is the heroine, and Carmel Myers and Renee Adoree play the rival charmers. Huntley Gordon, Bert Roach and others of note are in the cast, and Hobart Henley, past master of sophistication directed the picture. Novarro in a modern dress suit proves even more romantic than in his "Student Prince" uniform, and, supported by an excellent cast is said to give a performance equal to any of his previous efforts.

LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 11.

The Golden Text was:—"All Israel shall be saved: as it is written. There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob" (Romans 11: 26).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:—"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the Lord formed man of the dust of the ground, and man became a living soul. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof. And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man" (Gen. 1:27, 2: 6, 7, 21, 22).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:—"It may be worth while here to remark, that, according to the best scholars, there are clear evidences of two distinct documents in the early part of the book of Genesis. The Science of the first record proves the falsity of the second. If one is true, the other is false, for they are antagonistic. The first record assigns all might and government to God, and endows man out of God's perfection and power. The second record: chronicles man as mutable and mortal—as having broken away from the divine image." (Continued at foot of preceding column.)

The manner in which University education can assist in evolving a new China was discussed by Dr. David Z. T. Yui, D. Litt., M.A., at a gathering of the Hong Kong University's Christian Association in St. John's Hall yesterday. Dr. Yui is down here from Shanghai on a short visit. He is General Secretary of the National Committee of the Y.M.C.A. in China, and chairman of the China Group of the Institute of Pacific Relations.

He was shot through the shoulder at point-blank range, while commending a sortie party, the bullet fracturing the shoulder and carrying away part of the lung, but he killed three of the enemy and, telling his men to "carry on and not mind him," walked back unaided to the hospital.

A most enjoyable bridge and mah-jongg party arranged by Mrs. J. R. Shearer and Mrs. R. A. Watt in aid of the Limbless Soldiers and Sailors Fund was held last Monday at 113 Avenue-Road, Shanghai. The sum of $210, including $40 from the sale of flowers and ornaments, and $50 from the sale of tickets for a taffeta silk cushion given by Mrs. Shearer, was raised. The prizes which were given by Mrs. Shearer and Mrs. Watt were won as follows: Bridge: 1st, Mrs. Dallas; 2nd, Mrs. W. J. E. Forsyth; Consolation, Miss Meathrel. Mah-jongg: 1st, Mrs. R. L. Read; 2nd, Mrs. R. W. Wells; consolation, Mrs. Huntley Davidson. THE CORONATION

When all were assembled, the higher officials of the Enthronement Commission took up their positions as guards of honour outside the gates of the Throne Room while others advanced slowly and decorously to their allotted places behind the rows of gongs and drums lining the eastern side and behind the drums and banners flanking the western approach. Then followed other officials bearing ancient swords, bows and arrows, spears, shields and other ceremonial objects, and after them came yet others, robed in fine silks of many colours.

Accession Announced
After the guests had been assigned to their proper places, the approach of the Emperor was heralded and all present stood up. Then followed an interval of silence, broken finally by the opening of the curtains behind which the Emperor and Empress, clad in ancient ceremonial attire, were seated on their thrones.

As the curtains were drawn aside, Their Majesties stood up and all present made profound obeisance. Having acknowledged this mark of respect, the Emperor read an Imperial Rescript announcing his accession to the Throne, after which the Premier, General Baron Tanaka, mounted the main steps and, taking up a position facing the Japanese Ruler, delivered an address of felicitation on behalf of the nation.

"Banzai!"
This done, he withdrew and, taking his position between two banners of red brocade embroidered in gold with Chinese characters, he led the distinguished assembly in three resounding shouts of "Banzai!" for the Emperor. Before the sound of the cheering had died away, the shouts of "Banzai! Banzai! Banzai!" were taken up by the waiting populace outside in the crowded streets, and the very heavens seemed to reverberate to the loud acclamations of the people, whose deep-throated cheers could be heard rising and swelling both far and near. This salutation being timed to the second, it was taken up simultaneously by waiting groups throughout the length and breadth of the land, so that at one and the same moment, this great shout of "Banzai! Banzai! Banzai!" throbbed to heaven from tens of millions of loyal subjects.

Culminating Point
This marked the culminating point of the great ceremony, which ended soon after with the closing of the curtains before the two thrones, while the crash of drums and gongs indicated that their Imperial Majesties were about to withdraw. Then the distinguished company filed out from the courtyard and special messengers, waiting in Tokyo, announced the successful conclusion of the ceremony to the Spirits of the Imperial Ancestors and to the Gods of Heaven and Earth in the sanctuaries of the Imperial Palace.

Sacred Dances
To-morrow, to the accompaniment of ancient court music, sacred dances will be performed before the Shrine of the Sacred Mirror, and on Monday Imperial messengers will be despatched to the Grand Shrine at Ise, the Mecca of all loyal Japanese, for it is there that the original Sacred Mirror, which according to legend was presented personally by the Sun Goddess in mythical times, is enshrined, and the shrine itself, dignified in its very simplicity and lack of ornamentation, is dedicated to her.

Other Imperial messengers will be sent at the same time to the shrines in the Palace at Tokyo and to the great national shrines to announce that the Daijo Sai, the solemn ceremony at which the Emperor will enter into direct communion with the spirits of the Imperial Ancestors, will take place on the night of November 14 and 15.

IN TOKYO

Tokyo.
The cheering at Kyoto after the Premier had led the banzaiing was relayed by wireless and clearly heard in Tokyo, where immense throngs, gathered before the Imperial Palace and in the parks, responded lustily, while sirens shrieked and the temple bells boomed acclaiming the new ruler. The crowds, which had been assembling since before noon, were in holiday mood, but wonderfully well behaved despite the entire absence of police.

Lantern Procession
Monster lantern processions have been parading the principal streets since nightfall banzaiing and singing, while immense crowds are thronging the thoroughfares, viewing the illuminations and making merry. Elaborately decorated trams, brilliantly illuminated, add to the picturesqueness of the streets which are festooned with red and white bunting, myriads of twinkling lanterns and fairy lights and other decorations.

"A Sea of Fire"
The focal point of the lantern processions is the entrance of the Imperial Palace, where numberless processions are converging, presenting the most striking spectacle of tens of thousands of lanterns like a sea of fire rising and falling in cadence as the demonstrators wave them aloft in accompaniment to their cheers.

Students and Workers
Judging by the preponderance of students and workers whose enthusiasm is patently sincere, the authorities should feel more assured regarding their loyalty to the Throne despite their so-called "dangerous thoughts."

Salutes Fired

The warships in Hong Kong harbour were all dressed throughout Saturday in honour of the occasion, and at 2 p.m., the actual time of the Coronation, salutes were fired by the ships and the battery at Kowloon.

The warships were illuminated and presented a pretty scene in the harbour, particularly H.M. aircraft carrier "Hermes" which was entirely picked out in white electric lights right up to the water line.

Just before the illumination was concluded at 9 p.m., rockets and every lights were fired by one of the ships, whilst simultaneously another vessel lit up the night sky with a broad ribbon of light from a searchlight. Then, suddenly, all the ships' lights were extinguished together, and within a couple of seconds the vessels faded into the night and the harbour once more assumed its usual placid night appearance.

Several prominent Japanese residences on the upper levels on the island were tastefully and effectively illuminated with numerous coloured lanterns. Prominent amongst illuminated houses were the residence of the Japanese Consul and the M.B.K. Mess in Macdonnell-road, which were visible across the harbour in Kowloon, the lights twinkling like gems against the dark hilly background as the lanterns waved gently in the breeze.

MR. B. BARON

WHEN THE MILLIONAIRE
EARNED 16s. A WEEK

What does it feel like to give away £500,000?

A "Daily Mail" reporter asked this question of Mr. Bernhard Baron, the millionaire tobacco magnate, whose munificent gift to hospitals and homes for cripples and orphans was announced recently.

Mr. Baron, a small man with fresh complexion and greyish, dark hair and moustache, was sitting in his plainly furnished office in City-road, E.C. He smiled and said:

"I feel happy to-day, but really not a great deal happier than I have felt for many years. You see, this habit of giving to those in need is one that is not really new to me. I began it years ago, when I could afford only just a little."

Perhaps I learnt something of what it is to be hard up. I remember my 16s.-a-week job with a New York tobaccoist, and the life I led then. My arrival in England with the specifications of my cigarette machine comes back to me, too, and the struggle to get someone to buy it—which they did after some time and at a fair price.

Then I gradually made progress making cigarettes, and I became rich.

Happiness of Giving
Of course I look after my own people, my relations, and my great staffs of whom I am so proud. What then? I am not a politician, I know nothing about politics, and I care little.

It is the poor, the sick, and the suffering who come most into my thoughts. As I sign some of these give-away cheques of mine it is they who come before my mind.

Money itself does not bring me happiness, but the giving of it does. Mr. Baron hinted that his 78th birthday, December 5, may see his contributions to charities added to. Already, including his latest gift, he has given away more than £1,750,000.

Dr. O. Fischer, a well-known Shanghai lawyer, returned to Shanghai last week from Europe on board the str. "Sakaki Maru," via Siberia, after an extended trip through the Continent. Dr. Fischer visited the leading European countries.

ARMISTICE DAY, 1928.

Where the road is winding that we call the Great Forever,
Sunlit in the freedom of its way,
Far beyond the broken path of dusty Earth's Endeavour,
Treads a mighty company to-day.

Hearts that might have withered in some stifling earthly by-way,
Hearts that might have beat atune to Fame,
Side by side in comradeship they march along the Highway,
Strong and young, with each a deathless name.

Hailed are they as brothers by the heroes of the ages,
By the great White Comrade loved and hailed;
Where the crosses glisten, where the deep sea foams and rages,
Where the moons of ten long years have paled,—

We, who knew their passing, humbly hail them, dim discerning
What they strove for, why they fought and died;
Ten long years the poppies have been redly flaming, burning
To extol their gift, each autumn tide.

Some there are, too, still in tragic pain their tired lives giving,
Freed at last to join the marching throng;
Bowed in awe we hail them all, the gallant dead and living,
To our pride no weakling tears belong!

Hark! Above the cries of earth that make the bright years dreary,
Silenced by no sounds with discord rife,
Where that white procession winds, their song-lit, brave and cheery,
Bids earth keep the Peace they bought her, strong and never weary.

Breathes the triumph of victorious life!

BOWLS SECTION "AT HOME"

THE NEW GREEN

Saturday was "Closing Day" of the Lawn Bowls section of the Tai Koo Recreation Club, when a very enjoyable afternoon was spent on the new bowling green. Bowls matches were played for spoons between teams captained respectively by Mr. Rosket and Mr. Kinnaird, the latter winning.

The successful players were Messrs. Kinnaird, Russell, Drummond, Laing, McKeechie, Walsley, Wallace, Moore, Grimes and Whyte. Their opponents were Messrs. Rosket, McLeod, Chalmers, Ferguson, Keown, Sloan, Stalker, Munro, Grimshaw and J. Stewart.

Sensation Review

At the close of the game, which was hard fought, Mr. J. Whyte, Chairman of the Tai Koo R.C., addressed the gathering as follows:—

We have once again arrived at our annual closing day and it is customary on an occasion such as this to give a little summary of the year's activities.

First of all we were somewhat handicapped at the beginning of the season through our ordinary bowling green being unavailable, we therefore turned our attention to the tennis courts and converted a portion of them into a temporary green and mainly due to the good work of our energetic ground overseer, Mr. James Sloan, we were able to carry on and finished not too badly.

In the 1st league we managed 3rd place and in the 2nd league 2nd place and I feel sure now that our new green is looking so healthy we should do better next year.

In the Colony open singles championship Tai Koo Club was well represented, and as you are all aware, our genial friend, Mr. John Ferguson, succeeded in winning the championship, for which we congratulate him in bringing such honour to himself and this club.

We lost a grip of the Spey Cup but it is good that honours go round and we are very pleased indeed that our old friends, the Civil Service, were successful after a very keen tussle with Craighower in winning this event.

I take this opportunity of sincerely thanking all those generous donors of prizes, they come along year after year so kindly giving and in this respect, I consider we are most fortunate.

To the ladies who throughout the season have attended to that welcome wee cup of tea on a grueling hot afternoon, we are also thankful.

In conclusion we are much indebted to those who have helped to make this afternoon a success.

The Prizes

Afterwards Mrs. Whyte distributed the prizes won in bowls competitions held by the Tai Koo R.C. during the season, and also presented spoons to the winners of the afternoon's game.

For their goodness in looking after the teas during the season, Messrs. Drummond, McLeod, Sloan, and Keown received pretty little souvenirs.

Mrs. Whyte was also the recipient of a similar souvenir for performing the ceremony of distributing the prizes, and the pleasant afternoon was closed with a vote of thanks to the Chairman and three hearty cheers of Mr. and Mrs. Whyte.

K.G.C. OPENING DAY

The "Opening Day" of the Kowloon Golf Club took place yesterday when a fourball match was played between teams led by the Club Captain and the President, respectively, whilst there were also competitions in driving, approaching and clock golf.

Mrs. E. Cock, wife of the President of the Club, distributed last season's prizes and also those won during the afternoon's competitions.

In a speech, Mr. H. Overy, Vice-President of the Club, congratulated Mr. F. E. Remedios on winning the "China Mail" Cup outright, remarking that it was a popular win which was also thoroughly deserved.

Mrs. Cock also presented prizes to Miss E. Findlay and Mrs. A. W. Roberts, the winner and runner-up in the ladies' clock golf competition yesterday, the former's score being 29 and the latter's 30. The long driving competition was won by Mr. J. D. Thomson, Mr. H. D. Gausden putting up the best aggregate score. Mr. E. D. da Roza won the approach competition.

CRICKET

HUGE SCORE ON CLUB GROUND

THREE CENTURIES

Batsmen had matters pretty much their own way in the eight cricket matches played on Saturday, three individual centuries being recorded.

In one of the league fixtures, however, J. C. Fletcher, turning out for Craighower C.C., performed a "hat trick" against Electric R.C.

Kowloon C.C. fielded all afternoon in their two-day match against Hong Kong C.C., the latter putting up the big total of 399 runs for three wickets which is probably a local record.

League II

C.C.C. 2ND v. ELECTRIC R.C.

At Happy Valley, Craighower C.C. 2nd XI defeated Electric R.C. by 112 runs.

Thanks mainly to a well-played innings of 61 by J. Abbas, the home team put up the big score of 167 runs. J. R. Way accounted for six wickets for 40 runs and Banks took three for 38.

Fletcher played a great part in the victory of his side by taking five wickets for 23 runs which included a "hat trick," the wicket being admirably suited to his slow-spin bowling. Fritz captured four wickets for 30. Electric R.C. replied with 55 runs of which J. R. Way made 26. Scores:—

C.S.C.C. v. NAVY

At Happy Valley, Royal Navy scored 175 runs for six wickets, declared, and defeated Civil Service by 28 runs.

Lt. Tate, going in towards the end hit up 43 not out, Marine Trusler made 42, Lt.-Comdr. Abelson 28 and Capt. Cornish 23.

For Civil Service, G. R. Sayer was very much in the picture. After taking three wickets for 28 runs, he played a sterling innings for 82 which he put up in 85 minutes. The home team were dismissed for 147, Hill capturing four wickets for 30, Tate three for 31 and Large three for 47.

K.C.C. 2ND v. H.K.C.C. 2ND

The two second strings of Hong Kong C.C. and Kowloon C.C. commenced their two-day fixture on the latter's ground.

Batting first, the home team scored 254 runs of which A. R. F. Raven made 105. F. Hamblin helped with 57 and G. Lee contributed 23. H.K.C.C. replied with eight runs for two wickets when stumps were drawn.

POLICE v. R.A.S.C.

Royal Army Service Corps lost to Police R.C. by five wickets at Happy Valley.

Batting first, R.A.S.C. put up 73 runs, J. Edwards (23) and R. Simpson (21) being the only batsmen to reach double figures. Alexander (4 for 48) and Lacey (6 for 20) bowled unchanged.

After passing their opponents' total for the loss of five wickets, Police R.C. went on to make 125 for 8 towards which Alexander contributed 73. F. Fry, taking five wickets for 38 runs was the most successful bowler for the visitors.

CHINESE R.C. v. R.A.

At Causeway Bay, Chinese R.C. defeated Royal Artillery by 91 runs.

A feature of the match was the fine innings of W. C. Hung, who scored 101 retired out of a total of 155 put up by the home team. Hung was also the most destructive bowler of his side, taking four wickets for 12 runs.

Royal Artillery compiled 64, Bdr. Taylor getting 23 not out and Lt. A. H. Musson 15.

HONG KONG C.C. v. K.C.C.

Hong Kong C.C. 1st XI occupied the wicket for the whole afternoon and put up the phenomenal score of 399 for three wickets, declared, when they entertained their old rivals Kowloon C.C.

A feature of the batting was the splendid knock of Hayward who made 143. Going in first, he early mastered the bowling and made full use of his powerful drives and cuts in a flawless innings. His first wicket partnership with Lammer produced 129 runs, the latter getting 42, and then with the Rev.

QUEEN'S REG'T. BEAT ATHLETIC

KOWLOON HOLD NAVY

The match at the Valley provided no surprise, the Queen's, before a great crowd, repeating last year's performance of defeating the Athletic. The Regiment now stands with the fine record of six matches played and six won.

The K.O.S.B. Regiment played brilliantly against a strong Club team, Reeves again being a big factor, and Kowloon did well to hold the Navy XI.

South China defeated Small Units as expected, but there was not much in it.

In the Junior Division R.A.F. scored a smashing victory over the Kowloon 2nd and Borderers 2nd XI decisively defeated the Navy 2nd string.

The South China team and the referees, Mr. Samy, were on the ground at kick-off time, but Recreio did not field a team.

CHINESE ATHLETIC v. QUEEN'S REGIMENT

Before an immense crowd on the Club ground these teams, both undefeated in the League, played a fine, hard match with the Queen's favouring their supporters and their recent excellent form with a good win by 3 goals to one.

The teams lined out as follows:—
Chinese Athletic:—Yik Chan-pong; Ng Kam-chuen, Lai Yuk-tat; Leung Yuk-tong, Wong Shui-wei, Lam Yuk-ying; Tso Kwei-shing, Lai Wai-koon, Wong Pak-cheong, Suen Kam-suen, Chen Kwong-tu.

Queen's Regiment:—Dadds; Hooper, Sharp, Byrne, Hill, Morris; Hibbert, Richardson, Cantor, Barclay, Caldicutt.

Referee:—Wt. Engr. J. W. Barber, R.N.

The match opened slowly, both teams evidently suffering from the importance of the occasion, the halves on both sides playing a strong game. Barclay tested Yik with a beauty but the goalie saved well. Cantor was injured after 20 minutes' play and retired but returned shortly though much handicapped. The Athletic were very persistent and attacked fiercely, but Queen's defended well till Chen slipped to Hooper and forced a corner. The corner was nicely placed and Wong Pak-cheong put the Athletic one up. They held the lead to the interval, the play being of a most exciting nature.

Sensation
The second portion of the game opened sensationally, as Cantor, who was playing a robust game at centre, was brought down heavily in the penalty area and Caldicutt evened the scores with a great drive, giving the goalie no chance.

The Queen's on level terms were now a big force, but Yik in the Athletic goal was in great form and saved well on many occasions.

The Athletic dashed away on the right and Tso Kwei-shing put over a perfect centre, but Queen's hustled the ball clear and following good work by Caldicutt, who placed nicely into the centre, Richardson headed through and Queen's were one up.

A Bright Movement
This was, a bright movement and deservedly cheered. Despite many bright attacks the Athletic forwards were now well held, Morris and Hill doing finely, and Caldicutt got moving again and smashed in a lovely shot which Yik partially cleared, but Cantor, following up, made things certain for the Queen's, who retired deserved winners by 3 goals to one.

A Brilliant Match
The match was a brilliant one and until Queen's secured their lead the Athletic were playing strongly, but they did not finish as they were expected. The Queen's halves were a large factor in deciding the issue. Forward, Queen's were very bright, and Cantor fitted in well with brilliant colleagues in Caldicutt, Barclay and Richardson, while Hill, Morris and Hooper were great in defence.

The Athletic opened smartly and after their first goals, more were expected, but the machine-like movements of last year were missing, and Suen was below form. Tso Kwei-shing and Wong Pak-cheong were very persistent and always dangerous, and Leung Yuk-tong and Lam Yuk-ying did well with a big opposition.

Yik Chan-pong was very good in the Athletic goal and saved his side on many occasions.

Queen's won on their merits but there was not more than a goal difference in the run of play between the teams.

KOWLOON v. NAVY

Played on the Kowloon F.C. ground before a fair attendance, a poor game ended in a goalless draw.

Kowloon:—Angus, Pile, Baldwin; Hedley, Sims, McKelvie; Clemo, Cornwall, Spary, Miles, Hayes.

Navy:—Brockman ("Titania"); Barkham ("Titania"), Baker ("Titania"); Cope ("Magnolia"), Evans ("Bruce"), Farlowe ("Titania"); Van Tromp ("Hermes"), Kernick ("Titania"), Mann ("Cumberland"), Firth ("Hermes"), Stenlake ("Magnolia").

Referee:—Mr. F. Smith.

Both teams made changes from the sides which turned out last week, but in neither case was any appreciable improvement in the play noticeable.

Kowloon are still as far as ever from getting together a satisfactory forward line, and with the exception of Miles, who gallantly fought a lone hand, none of the front line showed First Division form.

The Navy, on the other hand, although obviously lacking practice together, were constantly dangerous near goal, and Kowloon have to thank a magnificent defence that they were enabled to leave the field with a point.

Kowloon kicked off and were the first to attack, Miles going close with a fine first-time.

Stenlake then got possession, and after beating Baldwin drove across a fine centre which Angus cleared in the nick of time.

A Great Tackle
McKelvie was next prominent with a great tackle as Mann was in the act of shooting, but the attack was kept up, and Angus made two fine saves in quick succession from Van Tromp. A free kick eventually relieved the situation.

Cornwall next sent Miles away with a nice pass, and the latter centred for Clemo to drive in a fast shot which Brockman saved brilliantly.

The visitors were soon pressing again, and the home goal had a miraculous escape, when Kernick fell in the act of shooting from close range.

Excitement ran high when both Mann and Kernick had shots smothered, and a moment later Angus brought off a grand save from Firth. The Kowloon half back line were playing at the top of their form, and Sims tried every method of getting his forwards on the move, but without success.

Just before the interval Evans fired in a great shot from 30 yards range which Angus did well to clear.

Half-time:—No score.

Exchanges were confined to midfield in the opening stages of the second half, and the ball was being continually kicked into touch.

Miles, who had moved into the outside left position, was the first to break away and he gave Campbell a perfect pass which left the latter with only the goalie to beat, but the shot was wide. A moment later Miles again ran down and presented Spary with an open goal, but the centre forward hesitated and Brockman rushed out to scramble the ball away for a fruitless corner.

The visitors fought back, and Mann had hard luck with a beautiful header which hit the upright. Evans again tried a long shot which had Angus bothered, and the ball came to Firth, who missed an open goal.

McKelvie obtained possession on the half way line and sent Miles away with a lovely pass, but none of the forwards were up to take advantage of the resulting centre.

Brockman next effected a clever clearance from Clemo and Cope cleared with a terrific punt. In the closing minutes the home goal again had a lucky escape when Kernick hit an upright with Angus helpless, and from the rebound Stenlake shot over an empty goal.

K.O.S.B. v. HONG KONG CLUB

Played at Sookumpoo, this game resulted in a win for the soldiers to the tune of 8 goals to one.

K.O.S.B.:—McDougall; Martin, Harris; Skeggs, Davey, Everest; Alexander, McClintchey, Reeves; Stock, Campbell.

H.K. Club:—Lagan; Holt, Wallington; Massey, Stewart, Watson; Alexander, McBride, Reid, Bishop, Scott.

Referee:—Mr. Stokes.

The Club kicked off but immediately lost possession; Alexander running down the wing and passing to Reeves, who made no mistake with a low shot within 15 seconds of the commencement.

Club pressed hard and McDougall was called upon to save. The Soldiers forced a corner but failed to score. McBride ran through and sent in a hot shot which McDougall did well to save.

Reeves then obtained possession through Stock and walked the ball in with the goal undefended.

A Penalty
The Club were awarded a penalty for a foul by Martin, but McDougall managed to push the ball out and in the scrimmage which ensued Watson took possession and scored.

A fine corner sent in by Campbell resulted in Alexander heading in the K.O.S.B.'s third goal. Reeves secured his "hat trick" from a penalty given for handling in the goal mouth when the goal was undefended.

Reeves then sent in another very fast shot which just missed and almost immediately after Reeves gave the ball to Stock who put in the K.O.S.B.'s fifth goal.

K.O.S.B.'s forced two corners in quick succession but failed to convert. Reeves forced his way through the Club's defence and sent in another fast shot which Logan was unable to get near.

Half-time:—
K.O.S.B. 6
H.K. Club 1

The Best Goal
Resuming, the Club made two good breakaways but were stopped on each occasion by Everest. Davey sent Alexander away who in turn passed to Reeves, who scored the best goal of the match with a left footed drive. Stock failed to score when nicely placed.

The K.O.S.B.'s were getting the game all their own way at this juncture. Stock scored the Soldier's eighth and last goal of this juncture. A lightning drive which gave Logan no chance whatever.

K.O.S.B. 8
Hong Kong Club 1

Easy Winners
The K.O.S.B.'s were easy winners although the Club were always dangerous in front of goal. For the Club, Bishop played a sterling game at inside left, his passes seldom going astray. Stewart, Watson, McBride and Logan did very well, the last named playing better than the score indicates.

For the K.O.S.B. McClintchey and Reeves were the pick of the forward line, although all played very hard. McClintchey played one of his best games in Hong Kong. The half backs and backs worked together very well. The Borderers with their new centre forward, Reeves are likely to be found to be much too good for the majority of the Clubs in the First Division.

S. CHINA v. SMALL UNITS
At Caroline Hill before a small attendance the locals just managed to beat the lowly placed Small Units, the latter being one man short throughout, but playing very pluckily and quite extending the local side, who were without Pau and Lau.

The teams lined out as follows:—
South China:—Cheng Yuk-wang; Li Tin-sang, Lau Kau; Leung Yin-chun, Pang Wa-hing, Leung Win-chiu; Ko Sik-wa, Fung King-cheung, Leung Wing-tuk, Ip Fak-wa, Li Tin-choy.

Small Units:—Penney; Dodshon, Earl; Lyons, Skinner; Croisdale; Jenkins, Smith, Spence; Waterfield.

Referee:—Pipe Major Mackie.

South China were away smartly from the kick-off, but Small Units defenders kicked well, Dodshon shining in the early stages.

Jenkins moved smartly on the visitors right and Cheng turned a shot round the post just in time.

South China pressed and Ip Pak-wa missed badly when well placed, but following a good movement by Fung, the ball came across smartly and Li Tin-choy scored for China, the locals leading at the interval by the one goal.

Hard Pressed Defence
In the second half the missing man on the Small Units told, and Dodshon, Penney, and Earl did great things in defence, Fung and his colleagues missing many chances, and it was not till well on in the second half that China scored again, Ip Pak-wa applying the finishing touch to a good movement, putting the locals two up.

S. U. Score
Small Units played up well and Waterfield scored a bright goal, the South China goalie making a very poor attempt at clearing.

This reverse netted the home side, but Penney was in great form, and the Units, moving smartly, Jenkins put in a fine shot which Cheng saved in good style.

China pressed to the end and ran out deserving but narrow winners by the odd goal in three.

Not Convincing
The Small Units played well and Penney, Dodshon, and Earl had a great afternoon, while Jenkins and Waterfield were very lively forward.

South China were not convincing. The goalie was variable but the backs played well, Li Tin-sang being a tower of strength and Lau Kau kicked very strongly.

Pang Wa-hing again played cleverly, but the forwards were erratic, and Fung had an off-day. Ko Sik-wa did well at outside right, but the forward line did not combine well, and Lau Mau was very much missed.

QUEEN'S v. SOUTH CHINA "B"
Played on the Chatham-road ground this game provided some bright and attractive football, and a very even struggle ended in a draw, each side finding the net once.

Play was inclined to be unnecessarily rough at times, and on two occasions the referee was obliged to administer a caution. The Queen's had Bunn playing at right back instead of in his usual position as leader of the attack, and without his help the forwards were not quite so effective as usual.

Thurloow accepted a pretty pass from Gill and ran on to beat Kwok Mook-hoi with a fast drive. For the remainder of the first half the exchanges were most even, and the Queen's defence was kept on the qui vive by the nippy South China forwards.

Half-time:—
Queen's 1
South China 0

A Shock
The soldiers seemed inclined to take matters a little too much for granted in the opening stages of the second half, and received a shock when Li Tam-po scored with a beautiful first timer which gave Underdown no chance. Stung by this reverse the Queen's played up desperately and were pressing for the best part of the time, but the South China defence never wavered. A moment before time Evans missed a great chance of obtaining the winning point when he shot over at close range from a corner.

CHINA ATH. v. ST. JOSEPH'S
Played on the Hong Kong Club ground. The first half was fairly even with both sides attacking in turn. The Athletic's inside left Sheng Shin-hong, scored the only goal.

The Chinese had most of the game in the second half, Hyder, the St. Joseph's left back, putting through his own goal under pressure.

R.A.F. v. KOWLOON RES.
After being only one goal down at the interval, Kowloon Reserves went all to pieces at King's Park, and the Airmen put on six more goals without response.

The game was marred by an unpleasant incident, an altercation between Greenslade and Easterbrook leading to both players being ordered off the field. The only goal of the first half was scored by Buckland, who worked in to beat F. Angus with a neat shot.

Two Sent Off
R.A.F. took command of the game from the restart, and Buckland put his side two up within five minutes. Shortly afterwards both teams were compelled to field ten men only, owing to the incident referred to above, and a terrific bombardment of the Kowloon goal resulted. F. Angus did splendidly in goal, and cannot be blamed for any of the shots which beat him.

Lock scored the third with a fine drive and almost immediately Gallagher netted with a neat header.

From now on the ball was rarely out of the Kowloon half, and further goals were added by Steele and Gallagher (2).

K.O.S.B. RESERVES v. NAVY
This game, played at Sookumpoo, resulted in a win for the K.O.S.B. Reserves by five goals to one.

Stevens opened the scoring for the K.O.S.B., followed shortly after by a very nice goal from Crawley.

Half-time:—
K.O.S.B. Reserves 2
Navy 0

Immediately on the resumption Torrie broke away and ran in to score a very good goal from a difficult angle.

The Hat Trick
The Navy forwards pressed but their work was spilt by bad shooting in front of goal. Crawley got possession with the Navy backs appealing for "offside" against him and ran in to score, the appeal being disallowed.

The Navy centre forward then scored with a very hot shot, this being the only hard drive at the K.O.S.B.'s goal throughout the game. Crawley then secured his

After the bowls, the League trophy was handed over by Mrs. B. Wylie to Recreio "A" team amid much applause.

Much Coveted Flag

Prior to the presentation of the trophy, Mr. J. M. da Rocha, President of the Club de Recreio, addressed the gathering as follows:—

On behalf of the Club de Recreio, I have great pleasure to receive the much-coveted Flag as winners of Division "B" for the last season. It will be our pardonable pride to exhibit this trophy whenever we have occasion to celebrate events here.

Keen on promotion into the senior grade, our enthusiastic bowlers have, through practice and perseverance, taken to the green as ducks the water. We will not be content with resting on our laurels, but will do our best to render a good account of ourselves during next season.

In this "gathering of the clans," if I may adopt a much talked of phraseology of recent date, we find good fellowship which we will try to retain as much as the Flag. All of us have enjoyed playing bowls with our associates in the League.

The Members of the Club de Recreio thank you all for giving us the pleasure of your company this afternoon.

Mr. Angelo Ribeiro:—As President of this Club, I offer a small souvenir to each member of the successful team as a keepsake with the assurance of my appreciation of their good work.

I call upon you—bowlers—and the rest of the members of the Club de Recreio, to give three cheers to our guests.

Their First Year

Mr. B. Wylie, President of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association, said that he must first thank the Club de Recreio for asking his wife to present the prizes. The occasion of the presentation of the Shield to the Club de Recreio, was made all the more meritorious in that it was the first year in which the club had taken part in bowls, and they had won the Shield.

Continuing, Mr. Wylie said that he did not know of any other Club that played so many games, as did Club de Recreio. They had, at one time and another, been Champions of the Football League and also the Tennis League.

Sporting Spirit

Reference was then made to the fine sportsmanship of the Recreio team, Mr. Wylie stating, amid applause, that every one of the teams that visited them always left feeling that they had played with sportsmen. A few years ago—three years to be precise—the Recreio, Mr. Wylie said, did not know how to handle a wood correctly, but since then the young Portuguese had made great strides, and had finished champions in their first league encounters. Mr. Wylie expressed the hope that the Recreio would retain the Flag and Shield when they entered the First League.

"It is my sincerest hope that they will never have to battle for it again," said Mr. Wylie in conclusion.

Prizes Distributed

Mrs. Wylie was then requested to distribute the prizes won in competitions held by the Club de Recreio during the season, as follows:—

Singles Championship.—Winner R. F. Luz; runner-up L. A. Gutierrez.

Singles Handicap.—Winner C. E. Marques; runner-up L. A. Rocha.

Doubles Handicap.—Winner C. F. Vas and F. X. M. Silva; runners-up C. M. S. Alves and C. A. Lopes.

Afterwards the Recreio's bowls captain was presented with the Flag of the Hong Kong Bowls Association and the "B" division League Shield.

Individual members of the "A" team, which won the Shield and Flag, were also presented with small shields as mementos of their success.

Little Miss Gutierrez daughter of Mr. L. A. Gutierrez, amid applause, then handed to Mrs. Wylie a bouquet of white flowers.

Three cheers were afterwards called by Mr. J. M. da Rocha for Mrs. Wylie and met with a hearty response from the large gathering present.

Lawn Bowls

Lawn bowlers of the Club de Recreio were engaged on six rinks. On the fifth rink officials of the Hong Kong Bowls Association opposed and defeated a team of the home side by 20 shots to 11. Other Recreio opponents, drawn from various other Clubs in the Lawn Bowls League, won on three of the remaining five rinks.

BEWARE OF COLDS!

Build Upon Your System To Resist Them As This Sufferer In America Did.

"I had become so badly run-down that I had one cold after another and it seemed impossible to build up my system," says Mr. Louis W. Bentz, of No. 101, Hungerford Street, Hartford, Conn. "Each cold lasted a little longer and was more severe than the one before. I lost my appetite and my strength was being slowly absorbed. I couldn't sleep well and felt tired in the morning. Severe rheumatic pains developed in my shoulders and in my back. I had dizzy spells and headaches.

"It was my good fortune to see an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try the remedy. Soon I felt so much better that I continued taking the pills. The rheumatism was relieved, my appetite returned and then I slowly regained my strength. I am free from headaches and dizzy spells and feel better now than I have in a long time. I strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to everyone in need of a tonic."

A tendency to easily catch cold is proof of thin blood and run-down strength. To rapidly enrich the blood and build up the whole system Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are unexcelled. As a remedy for anaemia, nervous debility, rheumatism, and all disorders of the blood and nerves, as well as for women's ailments, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are world renowned. Your chemist can supply them.

MR. KELLOGG ON INTERNATIONAL PEACE

THE GREAT PACT

PRES. COOLIDGE ON U. S. AND THE EUROPEAN WAR

NAVAL AFFAIRS

New York, Yesterday.
Mr. F. B. Kellogg, Secretary of State Department, in his Armistice Day speech spoke in a world alliance for international friendship and urged that the illegality of war should be an established principle in international law for if people were so minded there will be no war in the future.

The Anti-war Pact was the expression of the hope of millions of people. It came from the visualized expression of desolated battlefields, ruined homes, broken men and stirred the great, beating heart of humanity.

Mr. Kellogg reviewed the implications of the Anti-war Pact, which had not entangled the United States in the politics of foreign countries, but the United States was anxious for the peace, prosperity and happiness of Europe and the rest of the world.

Pres. Coolidge's Speech

Washington, Yesterday.
In the course of his Armistice Day speech, President Coolidge declared that "Had we not refused the Anglo-French Naval Compromise the French Army and the English Navy would be so near unlimited that the principle of limitation would have had to be virtually abandoned."

President Coolidge stressed the point that foreign Governments had agreed to limit the class of warship in which the United States was superior, but declined the limitation of the class in which they were superior. He said that when the contemplated British legislation was carried Great Britain would have 68 cruisers to America's 40.

U.S. Army & Navy

President Coolidge declared that war negation was the antithesis of human progress, but a country was best when defended and less likely to be the subject of hostile attack. It was our duty to maintain an adequate Army and Navy and we were entitled to more warships than any other country in view of our long coastline and extensive commerce.

Duties Towards Europe.

President Coolidge expatiated on America's duties towards Europe, but said the duties were mutual. America tried to meet hers by helping Europe's financial rehabilitation and declared that Europe had arrived at a state of financial stability and prosperity, where we could not be called on to help or to act beyond a strict business basis.

Decades of Peace

President Coolidge's speech was made under the auspices of the American Legion in the "auditorium."

The President rendered thanks for the decades of peace and said that America, because she had resources of characters and spirit to raise, equip and support an Army, Navy and the placing of two million men in the battle-fields of Europe, had contributed to the making of the Armistice of Nov. 11, 1918.

He paid a tribute to the whole nation but gave the place of honour to the men who wore the uniform. He denied that America had made profits out of the war, and emphasized that America took no enemy's colonial possessions and she was now returning the enemy their private property confiscated. The final cost of the war to America was approximately one hundred thousand million dollars or half the wealth of the country when she entered the war. The losses of other nations would be reduced by territorial acquisitions and reparations and the American outlay would be greater than that of any other countries. No citizen of the United States needs to apologise to anybody anywhere for not having done his duty in defence of world liberty—Reuter's American Service.

According to the opinions of numerous old residents in the city with whom he talked, neither the opera nor ballet has suffered in quality owing to the revolutionary change in government. Not the slightest vulgarity or indecency was permitted on the stages of any of the theatres and he found caeteris non-existent.

Zeal for Education

Mr. Fleming heard much talk of the great educational programme that is under way in the country but is not being carried into full force because of the lack of teachers and proper school buildings, but the people's thirst for learning is met to some extent by an extensive programme of lectures that are being given in many cities under the auspices of the educational authorities.

HAMPERING SMUGGLERS

Washington, Nov. 1.
Coast Guard headquarters today ordered six new patrol boats transferred from the Atlantic to the Pacific to chase rum runners.

Ensign H. T. Jewell is in command of the ships, which have a cruising radius of 5,000 miles. It is believed by Coast Guard and prohibition enforcement authorities that the presence of the new boats in Pacific waters will materially hamper smugglers.—United Press.

"ON HIS TRAVELS"

SHANGHAI MAN TELLS OF WHAT HE SAW

SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT

A very well-known member of the American community, Mr. W. S. Fleming of the law firm of Fleming, Franklin & Allman, Shanghai, has just returned from an extensive trip through Europe and the United States which, while taken as a means of relaxation and for a change of scene, kept him very much on the move and he covered almost every large city in the countries through which he passed, says the "N. C. Daily News."

Mr. Fleming's route from Shanghai was across Manchuria and through Europe to the United States where he stopped a short time in California meeting Mrs. Hinchliffe who had crossed the Pacific to await him in San Francisco. From there he came back to the East across the United States and through Europe along the same road taken by Mr. Fleming on his way out.

Russia Looking Up

Particularly impressed was he with the conditions in Russia. He reports excellent train service on the entire trip across Soviet territory. There was no passport difficulties and he found the officials and people friendly towards foreigners. The people by all outward appearances seemed to have sufficient food and he heard of no internal dissension with regard to the present government.

Mr. Fleming spent eight days in Moscow. He was especially interested in the city as it is reputed to have more churches than any other metropolis in the world and, contrary to the general opinion, he found no attempts on the part of the government to interfere with the religious devotions of the people.

The churches are open at all times and their bells are heard almost as frequently as tram bells in any other large city, and the people are regular in their attendance at the services.

Facing the main entrance to the famed Red Square where the body of Lenin lies in state, there is a little chapel reputed to be the most famous in Russia and of considerable significance in the history of the country. Mr. Fleming found it thronged day and night.

The Opera and Ballet theatres are operated by the Government and the Grand Opera and Moscow Ballet were quite the most remarkable he had ever seen. He attended performances of both at the great State Opera House and was particularly thrilled by the ballet when over 200 performers appeared on the stage at one time dancing to music furnished by the orchestra of 120 musicians.

According to the opinions of numerous old residents in the city with whom he talked, neither the opera nor ballet has suffered in quality owing to the revolutionary change in government. Not the slightest vulgarity or indecency was permitted on the stages of any of the theatres and he found caeteris non-existent.

Zeal for Education

FRANCE'S POLITICAL CRISIS

NEW CABINET

M. POINCARÉ'S EFFORTS SUCCESSFUL

FRESH APPOINTMENTS

Paris, Yesterday.

On the fifth day of the crisis, M. Poincaré is still attempting to form a Cabinet. He had practically succeeded yesterday evening in organising a Cabinet of "Republican Concord," which is a euphemism for "National Union," including four Radicals, but the Radical Party forbade its members to participate. M. Poincaré is endeavouring to substitute Senators of the Left groups. The Government is being definitely formed to-night.

M. Chéron will take the Ministry of Finance from M. Poincaré, M. Tardieu replaces M. Sarraut in the Ministry of the Interior, whilst M. Marraud and M. Herriot will have the portfolios of public and instruction, respectively.—Reuter.

M. Poincaré has formed a new Cabinet. The Radical-Socialists refused to participate. M. Briand remains as Foreign Minister.—Havas.

THE INCHCAPE GIFT

MRS. HINCHLIFFE AND HER DAUGHTERS

NOW FREE FROM WORRY

Messrs. Blakeney and Co., of Albemarle-street, solicitors for Mrs. Hinchliffe, widow of Captain Hinchliffe, the airman, announced that "a settlement of the £10,000 gift by Lord Inchcape for the benefit of the sufferers from the Atlantic flight disaster of March last has been made whereby the Public Trustee becomes trustee of such settlement and the moneys (after discharging certain liabilities) are held by him to be administered for the benefit of our client and her two daughters."

"We would add that the arrangements entered into have the entire approval of all the parties concerned."

Mrs. Hinchliffe, in an interview, said:—"This has eased the great anxiety I have felt for my two children. It means a life settlement, and the strain of worrying about the children's future is over."

He gave a programme of lectures that are being given in many cities under the auspices of the educational authorities.

The hotels in Moscow he found to be government-owned and operated and the service was quite good. Numerous plans are being carried out for their betterment.

Germany Hard At Work

Leaving Moscow Mr. Fleming proceeded to Berlin, spending some time in that city and in Hamburg. He said the German people were hard at work and apparently prospering. In his opinion the heavy indemnity imposed on the country has acted as a stimulant to the people and he found them bending every energy to a more complete organization of their industries in order to meet the large payments.

It was his opinion that after German industry and commerce are relieved of the indemnity burden the country will emerge as an especially strong competitor in the various markets of the world.

The far seeing German, Mr. Fleming believes, looks on the indemnity as the greatest incentive for his people to regain their former standing that the Allies could have given.

Arriving in England he was instantly struck by the wonderful weather southern England has been enjoying and utilised every moment to the best advantage. He made a trip to Edinburgh and Aberdeen on the famous "Flying Scotsman" and spoke most highly of the well-developed English transportation system.

The crack train of the North-Eastern Railway he found all that had been claimed for it and that it was the longest non-stop journey, (which by the way is the longest non-stop trip on record to-day) was completed in eight hours.
